Wholesaler of electronics and accessories Petra is an American consumer and electronics wholesaler based in Edmond in the state of Oklahoma. The company was founded by Bill Stewart back in 1985, selling consumer audio and video products, and has continued to be the leader in the industry. They carry some of the biggest brands in electronics today, their reseller authorizations for which are detailed on their website. Some of the products that Petra offers are mobile phone cases and covers, home appliances such as fridges and dishwashers, cleaning supplies, television mounts, stands and furniture, televisions, DVR and media players, universal remotes, headphones, speakers, portable speakers, iPod accessories, GPS navigation systems, camera memory cards, gaming consoles, telephones, action cameras, tripods, binoculars, and so much more. To contact Petra, customers may call them at their toll free number Mondays through Fridays, between 8am and 6pm Central. They may also be reached by email, or by filling out the contact form found on their website.
