Drop shipper of various gift baskets National Gift is an American gift baskets drop shipper that only deals with resellers, dealers, and retailers. The company offers hundreds of gift baskets in different designs, containing different products for every theme, holiday and occasion. They also offer guidance for members who would like to know more about marketing strategies, as well as provide help to those who are in the early stages of their resell business. Resources are available on National Gift's website. National Gift not only offers gift baskets, but they also carry flowers and fine candy which can be added or combined in a gift basket. Custom designed gift baskets are also available upon request, if the order is in a quantity of 10 or more. Also, the customer or member must be able to take delivery for the customized gifts. To apply for a drop ship account with the company, one simply needs to sign up the online application form and pay the monthly fee of $19.95. You will then be able to access wholesale prices, as well as product photos, descriptions and other information needed to upload to your own website or catalog. For other inquiries, the company may be contacted by phone or by filling out the web contact form.
