Canadian LED light up products dropshipperGlowProducts.com Inc is the one-stop shop for all novelty glow and light up items one may need either for parties, display and décor, giveaways, etc. The company has been in business since 1998, being based out of Victoria in British Columbia. GlowProducts.com Inc caters to business owners of different industries such as golf, promotional, novelty, and even the safety industry. Police departments also count for part of their customer base, providing them with emergency glow sticks. They pride themselves in having developed great relationships with both their customers and manufacturers, and being able to offer their products at wholesale prices. From light up bar products such as shot glasses, ice cubes and margarita glasses, light up LED golf balls, footballs, volleyballs, light up jewelry, glow necklaces, to batteries and flashing pins, glow and customized lighting products can be found at GlowProducts.com Inc. Do note, though, that their minimum order amount is $50.
