Gifts dropshipping from UKPuckator Giftware Wholesalers is a British wholesaler of gifts and collectibles based in Liskeard in Cornwall. They have been catering to small to big scale retailers and other businesses for over 25 years. Over the years, they have been constantly updating their merchandise in order to ensure that they keep up with the changing trends in giftware. Puckator Giftware Wholesalers offers several different product categories such as aromatherapy and incense, homeware and garden products, mugs, key rings and clocks, craft and stationery items, toys, fashion accessories, novelty products, jewelry, cultural figures, wedding decorations and favors, father's and mother's day gifts, christening gifts, and so much more. They take pride in establishing great relationships with their customers - offering awesome support - that designated Puckator sales agents could even come to your store or place of business to discuss options. They have sales agents handling different major areas in the UK and Ireland.
