Dropshippers Activ8Activ8 Distribution Ltd was established in 2000 providing unlocking equipment and accessories to the UK market. Since that time they have grown into a distributor and now have offices in Mainland Europe and China sourcing products for a range of diverse retailers and businessesSince 2005, their drop ship company has provided a repair centre for trade and retail which has full-time engineers covering not only mobile phones but iPod's, PS3, Nintendo Wii, DS Lite and more. As a provider of spare parts they are in a position where they provide extremely complete parts prices whilst labor costs are comparable with the reputable companies in the UK.Their product ranges from CASE, SCREEN PROTECTORS, POWER DATA & DOCKS, MISCELLANEOUS, SOUNDS, SPARE PARTS, and also includes CLEARANCE STOCKS. All are drop shipped to your customers if needed.Activ8 guarantee everything that your products are drop shipped promptly and arrive safe and sound and in full working order.
