New York Closeout Merchandise DropshippingCloseout Services Corp has been in the business of selling closeout products since 1996 and they operate from New York. For sixteen years they have been dealing exclusively with closeout and liquidation merchandise like toys, gifts, housewares, novelties, ad specialties, pens, jewelry, tools, clothing, clocks and watches, key chains, and many more.Closeout Services Corp caters to several different businesses such as startup retail stores, online sellers through eBay and other platforms, general merchandise stores, malls, etc. The company also offers dropshipping services which help their customers – the retailers – save on time and costs. For retailers in Ohio, picking up of orders at their Mansfield warehouse is also available. Tom David Lewis, the owner of Closeout Services Corp., welcomes and encourages customer feedback to help them improve on their policies and procedures, as well as update their inventory to keep up with the changing trends.
